

Application for the HIV Client Advisory Committee

The Board of Directors of The Spahr Center is now accepting applications to serve on the HIV Client Advisory Committee. To qualify you must be registered as an HIV client of The Spahr Center. A special nominating committee of two board members and two clients will screen and interview applicants. Up to nine members will be appointed to serve on the advisory committee.

To apply, please provide the information below and submit your application to The Spahr Center, Attn: HIV Client Advisory Nominating Committee. We will acknowledge receipt of your application and notify you of the next steps in the screening process.
